

The John and Ginny Elam Pro Bono Award

Deadline July 10, 2019

Your input is requested in identifying candidates for the 2019 John and Ginny Elam Pro Bono Award, which will be presented at the Ohio State Bar Foundation's Annual Dinner and Awards Ceremony in Columbus, Ohio, on Friday, October 4, 2019.

AWARD CRITERIA

The award recognizes a lawyer's exceptional pro bono legal work in the State of Ohio, which may consist of pro bono representation necessary to make the system of justice available to all, support to organizations that provide pro bono representation to indigent clients, or time and skills donated to community, governmental and other activities that promote the common good.

The award recipient will receive recognition at the Ohio State Bar Foundation's Annual Dinner and Awards Ceremony and in various legal and general interest media. In addition, the awardee will be able to designate a 501(c)(3) organization to receive a $5,000 grant from the Award Fund at the Columbus Bar Foundation.

Individuals may be nominated by the submission of an email or letter to the Award Selection Committee Chair Honorable Jeffrey E. Froelich, Second District Court of Appeals of Ohio.

To send via mail, please mail the letter to:

Honorable Jeffrey E. Froelich
41 North Perry Street
P.O. Box 972
Dayton, OH 45422-2170.

Alternatively, nominations may also be submitted to Judge Froelich by email, at froelichj@mcoho.org.

Nominations must be received by July 10, 2019 to receive consideration by the Selection Committee. Nominations should include a brief description of the qualifications of the nominee for the award, as well as contact information for the nominee and nominator.
